Tour Itinerary

Day 1, Saturday 28th May 2016

9.30 am Pick up in minivan from Avignon TGV or Central. Station. We will be driving directly to Villeneuve des Avignon to experience the fabulous antique market and enjoy a pre-lunch taster of shucked oysters and prawns with Pic Poule de Pinet (white wine).

Lunch at Guinguette by the River Rhone. Short drive to Maison de Maitresse & Petite Maison to settle into your wonderful 18th century stone villas; freshen up, unpack and then meet together on the top terrace for a welcome cocktail 'Kir royale' and an orientation.

19.00 we will all meet for Apero of Amanda's famous 'Beaujolais Soup' and savoury cakes.

French 'Welcome Dinner' by Franscoise and French accordion music by husband Maurice.

Day 2, Sunday 29th May

8.00 am breakfast (this will be at the same time every day) 8.30am (for those who want) a basic French Lesson with Maurice.

Option of a wonderful walk through the country side from the village to Uzès, escorted by Gaby the Deputy Mayor of St Maximin. Other option is to visit the local flea market and look for treasures amongst the trash. Walkers will be picked up by van and brought back to the flea market for the last hour.

Lunch at the Maison. Relaxed afternoon.

19.00 Apero on top terrace (same time every evening) 20.00 Dinner by one of our chefs or local village restaurant.

Day 3, Monday 30th May

Excursion to Les Baux de Provence and Carriers de Lumieres

Return to the Maisons – 7 pm apero & dinner by one of our chefs.

Day 4, Tuesday 31st May

Excursion to Saint Quentin La Poterie, a working pottery village famous for its at least 18 artelliers, where you can watch potters work.

Lunch at Mas Bellevue, a beautiful 17th century, renovated Mas, owned by fellow New Zealanders. Joanne and Gary. Beautiful setting.

Return to the Maisons for a light dinner by Judy.

Day 5, Wednesday 1st June

Brief for days trip to Uzès Producers Market and shopping in the many quaint boutiques.

Meet for lunch at 'Terroirs', in Place Aux Herbes in the square overlooking fountain. More exploring before we leave for the Maisons.

Dinner at Maison & music.

Day 6, Thursday 2nd June

Briefing for Kayak trip down the Gardon River to view the spectacular 2000 year old Roman aquaduct Pont du Gard. A gourmet picnic and wine on the side of the River and swimming for those who love the water. (Kayaking optional, anyone not kayaking will be transported to the Pont du Gard Museum and meet for the picnic).

Dinner to night at "Table 2 Julien" Restaurant which has been the 'number one' restaurant in the area for the past six years.

Day 7, Friday 3rd June

Day out in Avignon. Overall view of Avignon on the tourist train then free time to explore and shop.

Return to the Maisons for party night with 'Compass Ole', our fabulous Gypsy musicians who will have you all up dancing.

Day 8, Saturday 4th June

Leave for Uzès famous Saturday market. Uzès boasts the best market for miles around and it is. Immerse your senses to all the pleasures you will experience. Great photo opportunities and present buying.

Lunch at Chez Philip in a surprise location with a local wine maker to give us a tasting and blurb about the wines of the region.

Back to the Maison to relax with a light dinner and music, Michel Eliard.

Day 9, Sunday 5th June
